With a Little Help From . . . the Whole SHS Community

With
Little Help...

"Help" and "Community" symbolize our focus on SHS this year. It takes everyone . . . doing at least a "little" to be successful! As the year begins, Yearbook uses Fall events to represent the year's activities and their participants: SHS Staff at August workshops and lunch; SHS cheers for the Student Body at Field Day; Football's 1995 season begins; and the Field Hockey Teams pose in SHS' Blue & Gold.

Our Blue & Gold

SHS — Red for the Class of 2000! The 10th Grade makes its mark in Sophomore Green; 8th grade and their first Field Day. Center: No doubt about who the Class of 1997 are: looks like "PURPLE people-eaters"! And in Blue & Gold way back in 1990: Jared Millman '96.

"A NIGHT IN HEAVEN"

We danced in heaven. On March 19th, 1994, we gathered as sophomores for our first formal class dance. Transformed by a small group of classmates, the cafeteria became a glamorous ballroom. "A Night in Heaven" was quite a change for most of the Class. Boys were stylin' in their suits, while the girls impressed all in their dance dresses. At the end of the night, we danced to the song "Heaven" by Bryan Adams. It then came to an end; first so much anticipated, then it all too soon became just memories, but our Semi-Formal will always be in our hearts.

Thank you Class of 1996 for Sponsoring this page!

Boy, those Seniors sure are generous!

Going Up? Or is it Down?

When the curtain parted on December 2nd, "Up the Down Staircase" and the acting careers of some of our classmates, began on the Shrewsbury High stage. Continuing through the weekend, the cast from the Class of '96, directed by Mr. Jack Feldheimer, portrayed an inner city school troubled by student delinquency. The play was filled with both humor and tragedy. The cast overcame lost voices, missing cast members, an unfinished set, and a frustrated stage manager, but everyone pulled through at the end. This was the largest J.C.P. cast to ever put on a show at SHS, and definitely one to remember.

A successful Café Olé followed the Friday evening performance. In a modern day café setting, delicious desserts and flavored coffees were served by Class of 1996 members to parents, teachers, and those lucky others who had tickets. It was a great way for the cast and this class to end a spectacular opening night.

A TROPICAL PARADISE - ALOHA!

Indeed there was a "Tropical Paradise" at SHS, on April 29th, 1995. The gym was completely transformed for the Class of 1996's Junior Prom. The decorating and planning committees, under the guidance of advisors Mr. Perreault, Mrs. Roddy, Mrs. Wolpert, Mrs. DiLeo, and Mr. Montecalvo, worked for months to make the night perfect. Marcus, Tim, Scott, and Shoosh began the evening dancing and singing Boyz II Men's hit "Thank You." Throughout the night, we drank daiquiri's and piña coladas, tried to climb the waterfall, and danced on water(literally). Brian Thibodeau and Lauren Bacotti were crowned prom king and queen. Their court included Kevin O'Connor, Matt Moore, Sameer Sawe, Chris Wu, Nikki DiLeo, Athena West, Karla Jarquin, and Mandi Waldron. The prom night unfortunately came to an end shortly after we heard the voice of Bob Marley singing "No Woman, No Cry" (the right version finally after two tries!). Many traveled to the Shrewsbury Raquetball Club for the after prom party. There was gambling and swimming for the less active, and, of course, sumo wrestling and boxing for the hyperactive. Most everyone took their chance in the ring. It was certainly a night to remember.

A Lot of Spirit . . .

Our Senior Advisors

We Seniors are so lucky to have had Mrs. DiLeo, Mrs. Wolpert, Mr. Perreault, Mr. Siff and Mrs. Roddy as our Advisors. They have given of themselves to help us every step of the way. Their efforts, energy, time and support have been essential to our success. Mrs. DiLeo has always taken care of her "duckies"! Mrs. Wolpert has been able to handle the stress of class business. What would the Junior Prom have been without Mr. Perreault's expertise and Mrs. Roddy's artistic advice? We are grateful for Mr. Siff's support at 9th & 10th Grade Spirit Weeks, Sophomore Semi and the other events attended. We take our hats off to all of you!

Thanks also to Mr. Montecalvo, Senior Administrator and big Class Supporter. This is to be his last year at Shrewsbury High School. We'll be going on to bigger and better things together! Good luck, Mr. Montecalvo!

Thanks to our Advisors from the Seniors!

Cum parvo auxilio de Our Seniors!

A good bit of time and effort has been focused on getting to this, the Senior Year. And, there's been NOT "a little help" from a LOT of people in the Shrewsbury Community and beyond.

And how far we've come! K. O'Connell and A. Gulino; N. DiLeo and C. Mayo Kindergarten Class: P. Ludt, B. Brodeur, J. Wright, S. Maheshwary, A. Gulino, D. Gleason, J. Roy, J. Cael.

Our fellow students!

From second grade on, in school, on the playing field, having fun, we support, we hug, we make each other laugh. As underclassmen, ourselves, we were there for each other. We try, now, to be good examples for the underclassmen. Our continuing goal: a Respectful Community.

Some Members of the Class of 1996 in their "younger" days: Melissa Aikens and Kari Harbert on an autumn day. Miss Barkocz' second grade at Spring Street includes from bottom left: Brian Brodeur, Courtney Mayo, Amy Gulino, Merissa Haddad, Ashley Nagle, Beth Warren; Jeff Strom, Pat Ludt, Merideth Barrell, Chris Wu, Joe Morris, Marty Lucey; Michelle Pikiel, Bridget Bergan, Kathy Law.

1986 Soccer players: Aaron Augustino and Scott Hawley.

Quotes, etcetera . . .

The bulletin board is to be found in Room 211. Mr. DeCoteau created it to provide a visual for Mr. Rose's presentation on his "Around the World . . ." but in more than eighty days . . . trip. See the map for Mr. Rose's proposed itinerary: Panama, Galapagos, Tahiti, Darwin, Sri Lanka, Suez . . . a Geographer's dream come true!

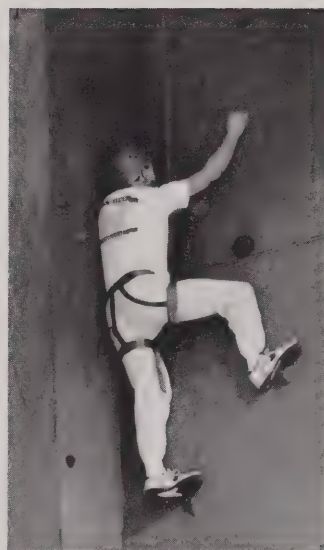

Mr. Rose will have set sail before you read this. In the "Extra" we hope to include a message from somewhere on the first "leg" of his "rounding".

In the '97 Yearbook, we plan to feature pictures and communiques from this 'round-the-world adventurer! At the start. Mr. Rose (January 1996) SHS:

“A Rounding . . . Getting away for a while; that's what I'm doing it for, that and seeing some more of my planet before I have to leave it forever. I'm not out to test myself, to push the envelope, to conquer the oceans, to 'Round the Horn'. I'm not out to rough it for a couple of years by crowding on to a small boat with three other lunatics. Thoreau went to the woods, as he says, not to rough it but to smooth it. The ocean does that for me. Like a piece of beach glass after a short time, all the rough edges get worn smooth. Please, next time you're at the ocean look out beyond the horizon and wave to me. I'll wave back. I promise.”

The St. Kilda is "the" boat and Mr. Rose, of course, its "Skipper"!

Yearbook has found Mr. Gutek many times in its travels about SHS. One morning he made a successful attempt at "the wall". This is what he shared with us:

“I enjoy the challenge of trying something new, something difficult, even a little scary. Climbing "the wall" with the careful guidance and advice of Mrs. Krause was an exhilarating experience for me. All of us need that mentor/teacher who will challenge us with a problem, assist us with some ideas and then push us to try a new experience to help us grow. I look forward to climbing many more walls at SHS!”

SKIPPER

As promised: JV Hockey!

Mr. Feldheimer believes in including everyone who will work in his productions. The numbers increase every year: we've heard over one hundred and fifty! We asked how he manages.

“Well, the stage, of course, and the set elevations. We have added stage extensions and use the stairs, the aisles, the ceiling! Next, I guess, we'll have to break through the back wall!”

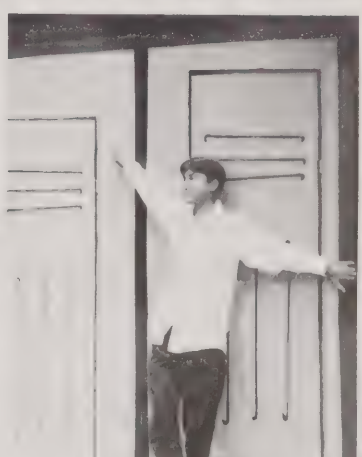

Pictured: the Floral Street site at the “groundbreaking”. Honorary groups participated including elementary school students and town officials. Dr. Bent discusses particulars with Town Manager Carney. The Superintendent comments:

“The Floral Street School will provide needed relief from the crowded conditions of the entire school system. The Shrewsbury Public Schools, K-12, have grown by more than 500 students in the last 5 years. The opening of the new school will allow complete reconfiguration of the entire system: 5th grade to the elementary level and 8th to the Middle School. We are particularly pleased that the new school will include 30 classrooms, a superb media center, and state-of-art technology. The size of the school (600 students) will permit a variety of instructional approaches to meet the needs of Shrewsbury's children.”

One of the most visible “character” actors on the SHS stage these past years is Chet Reshamwala, who shares these thoughts:

“Who is he? No one quite knows. Trapped in the halls of Shrewsbury High, a man by the name of Chet has taken on different and unique roles in an effort to find his true identity. Beginning as an apostle, Chet found the story of Jesus of Nazareth to be quite interesting. Moving on to the Jewish way of life, Chet identified with a Rabbi last year and learned little about that faith, a rare threat for a Hindu! This year Chet finds himself an English gentleman with a bloody British accent. Then there was the sex-crazed student who had a belly dancer hidden in his locker! And that annoying brother in ‘Cheaper by the Dozen’. But, Chet vows to leave SHS in ‘97 with his true identity intact.”

Kim Ethier ('93) poses with her Ukrainian friend Anya, who first came to Shrewsbury with the Bridges for Peace program. When Kim and her fellow students visited Russia during her senior year, Kim and Anya managed a visit in Kiev. Kim vowed to return to Russia to study. Now she speaks Russian and leaves for St. Petersburg February 1st, 1996 to make good her promise! Kim's goals are:

“I want to become more proficient in Russian, gain a better understanding of the culture and Russian life, and give myself contacts and opportunities for work related to Russia. And I plan to travel: in Russia, to Moscow and maybe Siberia; and also in Estonia, Finland, Belarus, Ukraine, Slovakia, Czech Republic, Poland, Hungary, Austria and Germany”

Yearbook looks forward to hearing from Kim!

Mr. Brandmeyer has moved from SHS to the Assistant Superintendent Office at 100 Maple. One focus is Educational Reform and its impact on Shrewsbury. One aspect involved discussing changes in the SHS school day schedule; another changes in curriculum throughout the district. Pictures were taken at an all day series of meetings involving the whole staff. Mr. Brandmeyer in reviewing these pictures commented (just kidding!):

“Mr. Brandmeyer leading a group of teachers who have volunteered to facilitate K-12 Study Groups, as part of the Professional Development Program, realizes that students have been right for years — there really is something more interesting outside the windows . . . this proves it!”

Yash Shah is very interested in events and experiences that are political. He has been involved and is now the President of PAG. Last summer he completed an internship in Washington DC.

“My political experience, so far, has been great. I have met politicians and business people, been part of campaigns (New Hampshire) and worked (DC). I am working at developing my own political opinions and have taught others about politics through organizations like PAG (a high point this year was Senator Kerry's visit to SHS). I plan for my political experiences to continue and to grow!”

Ade Ibikunle shares his thoughts as Sociology's “Great American Feast!” begins:

“Thanksgiving is the celebration of peace between the Pilgrims and the Native Americans. When the settlers came they didn't know how to survive. This was their way of thanking the Native Americans for showing them.”

Kate Majewski as a part of her SAC responsibilities rotates into the SAC seat at the School Committee Meeting.

“Meetings showed me how School business gets done: policies and issues, testing, school trips, the Floral Street School built. But I also learned about bureaucracy and its often tedious nature.”

Kate at SC Meeting with Mr. Brandmeyer and Mrs. Wright and Mark Shooshan. And, Kate in a very much lighter moment.

ACADEMICS

The lunchroom was costumed at Halloween.

Some of our varsity football players volunteered on a fall Sunday to participate in a local CROP walk.

Jeff Strom and Joey Parmakian even roughed the rain to tape the girls varsity soccer games.

Mark Ethier and Talon Asadoorian make beautiful music together.

Miss Yurkinas' class carved Jack-O-Lanterns in order to investigate the geometric principle of symmetry. Happy Halloween!

Mrs. Meyers meets with volunteers interested in the Dance Marathon for AIDS.

Fifty five juniors accompanied Mr. Brunell, Ms. Tosi, and Mrs. Dileo to Harvard, Massachusetts. Artifacts of the Nipmucks and Algonquin Indians were viewed. Tours were taken to the Shaker Museum and the Picture Gallery. Another feature attraction was the Fruitland Farm, established by Bronson Alcott and visited by Emerson and Thoreau.

Elvan Gur, Mark Morgan, Josh Jones, Connelly Castle, and Veronica Zielinski wait for admission.

Kelly Sheehan, Kim Bonln, Kate Leonard, Jeremy Abraham, and Linda Allen admire an Algonquin Indian warrior.

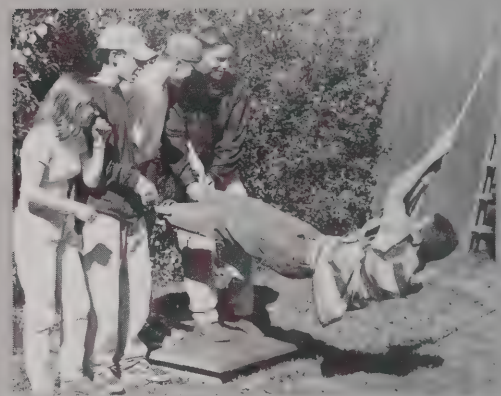

1994 graduate Matthew King returned to SHS from the culinary institute of Hyde Park, NY to demonstrate his talents to the current foods students. The menu consisted of sauteed chicken breasts with Bernaise sauce, Ratatouille and Duchess potato. The consensus was that the food was outstanding and the entertainment delightful. You would be astounded to know how much clarified butter Matt used in his menu preparation!

It's all a matter of trust in the adventure gym classes.

Dr. Flint was invited to SHS by Mr. Pottle to demonstrate to students the basics of Revolutionary War era medicine. Nikki Jalbert, Tiffany Dexter, Merissa Haddad, and Maria Simone demonstrated the techniques.

Mrs. Krause demonstrates the proper technique to bowling, a lifetime activity that no physical education student will forget. Melissa Aikens, Cindy McDonald, and Mrs. Jonaitis are looking for a big score. Scott Hawley takes one last whiff of his groovy alley shoes just before he has to give them up.

Mrs. O'Leary and Sociology class welcomed the Foreign Exchange Students to their temporary home by having a Great American Feast with advisors and administrators. Everyone enjoyed the enormous turkey and the Thanksgiving trimmings! The feast involved much interaction between the host class and its guests. Everyone learned about the customs of others as well as how to enjoy a great meal at SHS.

Mrs. Bartleson's class held a competition testing the aerodynamic capacity of hand made paperairplanes. Andre Yanni's flew far beyond the rest, obviously he had an expertly designed plane.

The National Merit Scholars are congratulated by Mr. Gutekanst and Ms. Galipeau. Leslie Polizoti, Dana Garvey, Rose-Anne McGrail and Melissa Aikens earned this prestigious honor with outstanding performances on their PSAT tests as Juniors. Congratulations!

Mr. Rutan's Eighth grade Science class takes an in-school experiment trip into the hallway. The foundations of Science can be fun, especially "hands-on" doings!

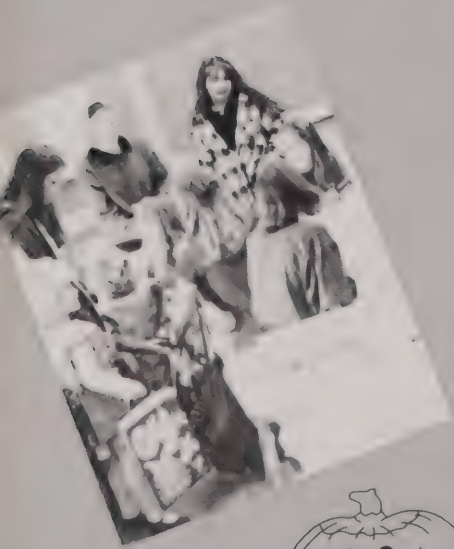

Leaving SHS with the Class of 1996 is Virginia Wright. This devoted Cafeteria Staff member is retiring after 25 years of smiling service to the students at SHS.

Hallowe'en is fun for everyone at SHS. The Little Colonial pre-schoolers went trick or treating throughout the school. These freshmen gave the "goblins" Hallowe'en candy that they made in class. Mrs. Bartleson's Geometry class constructed jack-o-lantern faces for Hallowe'en using string art.

The SHS Television studio is always on the ball at the bi-weekly School Committee meetings. When the debate gets hot, the camera catches it all.

A 1995 Cadillac was donated to SHS by General Motors Corporation. This car will help train the automotive students in the computerized world of cars and the related machinery. The group of gentlemen standing behind the "Caddy" include School and Town Officials as well as General Motors Reps and Dealers. Tim Hutker (4th from right is a mid 70's Graduate of SHS.) Joe Morris and others excitedly take a peak under the hood of this new learning "tool"!
Mr. Smith accepts delivery of this "beauty" from Scott Bicknell, SHS Alumnus, Class of 1971.

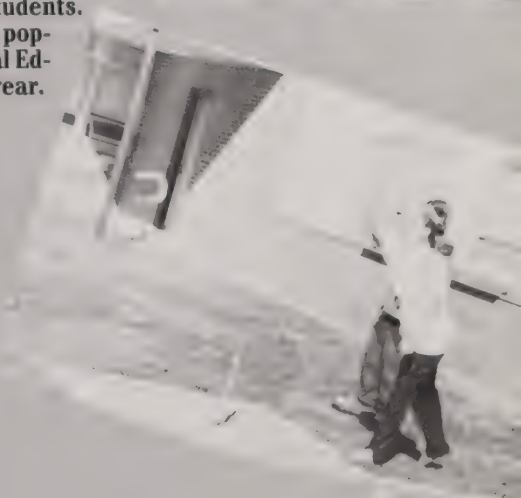

Mrs. Bartelson was "counting" on getting her picture into the Yearbook when she met "The Count" from everyone's favorite show, "Sesame Street."

Mrs. Crowley chats with one of the Community Leaders at a before-school breakfast held to discuss the "School to Work" Program, an extension of the JBSG program she directs. This hopefully will lead to the involvement of more departments and additional area businesses. Mrs. Crowley is proud of her JBSG class. Rich Barbour, Jeff Wright, Chris Agbay, Steve McHugh, Justin Coda and Matt Taft pose in front of the JBSG "Giving Tree" in the Nurse's Office. This sign of good will resulted in a lot of Holiday Gifts for those in need in our town. Job well done!

Mr. Montecalvo demonstrates the proper bocce form and technique to inexperienced gym students. Horseshoes is another popular activity that Physical Education developed this year.

Thanks to the Math Department for their sponsorship.

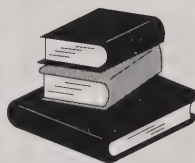

A tour to meet the Faculty and Staff connected with SHS begins at "100 Maple". There we meet Dr. Bent, Superintendent of Schools; Mrs. Wright, Business Manager; and Mr. Brandmeyer, Assistant Superintendent. The Central Office Staff also includes Mrs. Cygielnik, Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Beer, Mrs. Stuczko, Mrs. Hixson and Mrs. Fiorelli.

As we arrive at 45 Oak Street, the English Department gathers beneath their favorite apple tree: Mr. Rose, Ms. Adams, Mrs. Stevens, Ms. Kavanagh, Ms. Moreschi, Mrs. Bannon, Ms. Abraham, Mrs. Calimeris, Mr. Danielson. Almost hiding, in the back row: Mr. Nelson, Mr. Hodgen, Mrs. Tompkins, Mr. Secino, Mrs. Wolpert, Miss Tosi, Mrs. LaBelle, Department Director. We can't find Miss Hubbard. Maybe she is with the World Languages group.

The main office is our first stop! Again, this year, we couldn't escape the insistent ringing of the phone! Answering is Mrs. Angelo, Office Manager. Greeting the visitor are Mrs. V. Beauregard, Mrs. Leone, Mrs. L. Beauregard, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Collier, Mrs. Mohr, Mrs. Mariano and Mrs. D'Elia.

Before the weekly Administrators' Meeting, we were able to snap new Principal Mr. Gutekanst, and Vice-principals: Mrs. Meyers (Student Affairs and Grade 11), Mr. Largess (Curriculum and Grades 8 & 10) and Mr. Montecalvo (Administration and Grades 9 & 12). Besides being responsible for the organization and well-being of SHS, there are sports' events, concerts, and dances to attend as well as numerous administrative, faculty, committee and community meetings. The Administrator's Day is a long one.

Just next door, we find Guidance or, now called, Student Services. And waiting for us, Ms. Galipeau, the Acting Director, Mr. DiPilato, Mr. Hassett and Mr. Nault.

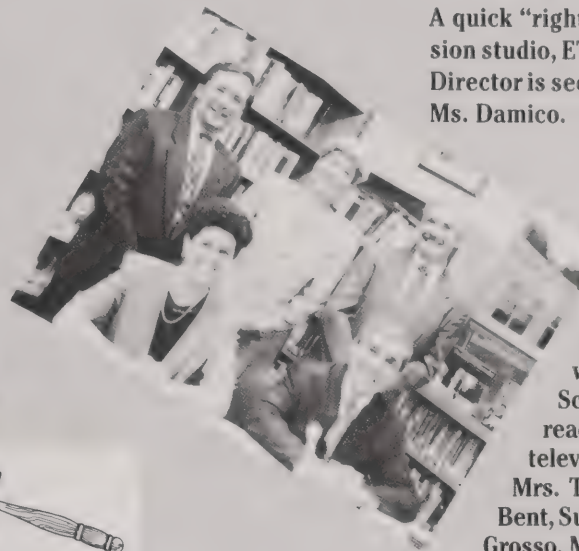

Before we leave this corridor, we meet in the Nurses' Suite: Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Shanley, Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. DeFalco and Mrs. Popp. Although Mrs. DeFalco is at SHS every day, the other nurses assist in screening and testing. We, of course, remember them from elementary and middle school.

A quick "right" and we arrive at the television studio, ETS Channel 57. Mrs. Duquette, Director is seen with Mr. Lake, Mr. Vella and Ms. Damico.

While in the Media Center, we happen to catch the School Committee, just about ready to begin their bi-monthly televised meeting. Seated are Mrs. Terrill, Chairperson and Dr. Bent, Superintendent. Standing: Mr. Grosso, Mrs. Casey and Mr. Keenan.

The next "wing" contains a number of World Language classes taught by Mrs. M. Figueras — ESL, Mrs. Downes, Mrs. Black, Mrs. LaBua, Mrs. Teggart, Director, Mr. Sullivan, Mrs. Estaphan, Mrs. Olson and Dr. Courchesne. Mrs. Lorente came to Shrewsbury and the Department after the picture was taken. We didn't find Ms. Hubbard here either! Spanish is the language of choice: 600 study it. Only 160 prefer French and 90 learn about Caesar and Cicero. Studying Chinese is an option thanks to a collaboration with St. John's. Mrs. Teggart also speaks Italian and would like to offer it if there is an interest.

We found Mrs. Swydan on her last day in the Copy Center literally "passing on" vital information on its use to Mrs. Beauregard.

At the end of this wing is the Health Office. Classes are taught by some PE teachers. Health teachers from other schools were also at this meeting. Mrs. Jonaitis, Mr. Tamburra, Mrs. Degon — Director, Mr. Warren — also Director of Athletics, Ms. Scibelli, Ms. Gannon and Mr. Marchand.

While "downstairs", we meet the Math Department — TWICE! First, in a rather formal group: Mr. Grenier, Mrs. Bildeau, Mrs. Mongiat, Mr. Cote, Mr. Clough, Mr. Bulger, Ms. Steiner, Mrs. Tegan — Director. Seated: Mr. Kirklauskas, Ms. Yurkinas, Mrs. Kupcinkas, Mrs. Hogan and Mrs. Bartelson. In the second shot, we find some of the front row, mimicking the geometric figures on the wall behind them — and having some fun!

Stopping by the Special Education and Resource Office, we find seated: Mrs. Gilmore — Acting Director, Mrs. Wallach and Mrs. Tiernan. Standing are Ms. Cadigan, Mrs. Holley, Mrs. Potash, Mrs. Bedrosian, Mrs. Dewar, Dr. Curran and Mr. Spisto, School Psychologists. Mrs. Baker, Mrs. DiLeo and Ms. Maroni are not pictured. SPED Aides are Ms. Fraser, Mr. Ricards, Ms. Sherman, Mr. Creamer and Ms. Wildes.

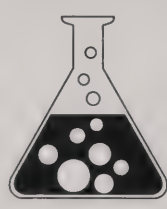

Next, on our tour, is the Social Studies Department and a partial listing of their classes: Mrs. Gustafson and Mrs. Goldman, World Geography Grade 8; Mr. Zona, Business; Mr. Pinsky and Ms. Murray, American Studies; Mr. Chace, Psychology; Mr. Cormier, American Studies; Mr. Mulcahy, Civics and World Civilization; Mr. DeCoteau, World Geography Grade 8; Dr. Klug, Director and European History; Mr. Brunell, American Studies; not seen, but behind the camera: Mrs. O'Leary World Civilization and Sociology.

Back "upstairs", we arrive at the Science Labs. Waiting to begin their meeting are Mrs. Schroder, Ms. Picciotto, Mr. Whitmore, Mrs. Swenson — Director, Mr. Goyette, Mrs. Bonneau, Mrs. Whitmore, Mr. McGinn, Mr. Rutan, Mr. Pottle, Mr. Mastrorio and Mrs. Bagley. We missed Mr. Brobeck. The Department offers various levels of Physical Science, Physics, Biology, Physiology, Chemistry and Bioethics.

The Gym area is the bailiwick of Mr. Munzner — Director, Mrs. Krause, Mrs. Jonaitis and Mr. Hursey. PE teachers from other schools are: Ms. Figueras, Mr. Liljegren, Mr. Tamburra and Mr. Hickey. PE teaches activities timely to high school ages, and also those for lifetime interest: volley ball, social dance, bocce, horse shoes, archery, tennis and bowling. There is an "outdoor" Adventure Course, which stresses thought and teamwork! PE Leadership offers an opportunity to teach elementary and middle school students under staff supervision.

Near the end of our tour, we visit the SHS Cafeteria Staff: Ms. Dickman the Manager and Ms. Meader were in the office, but we found the rest of the staff in the midst of preparing lunch: Mr. Tata, Ms. Kelly, Ms. Dirodi, Ms. Fredrickson, Ms. Ginese, Ms. White, Ms. Benoit, Ms. Tozeski, Ms. Arsenault, Ms. Ford, Ms. Sullivan and Ms. Gonet. Also missing is Tim Callahan, often to be seen in the lunchroom. He also provides the courier service that so many of us use. Around the corner is the office of the Custodial Staff. We never succeed in getting them on camera but their presence is everywhere: Mr. Anderson, Ms. Baptista, Mrs. Holland, Mr. Morrissey, Mr. Putelis, Mr. Surette and Mr. Weigold, Head Custodian.

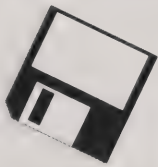

A much expanded Computer Technology area is presided over by Mr. Fine, Ms. Conley, Ms. Dlott, Ms. Magat and Director Mr. Cornacchioli. Ms. Adams has not learned to be in two places at once, she was attending the English Department Meeting. Beyond introductory courses, this Department offers Computer Application and Science courses.

Technology Education is provided by Mr. Perreault, Mr. Smith, Mr. Olson and Mr. MacMillan, Director. Their classes include: Auto Systems, Robotics, Electronics, Wood Design & Production, Building Construction, Graphics/C.A.D., Architectural Courses, Transportation & Power.

Often, all Music Staff assists in Concerts and in the "pit" for Musicals. Meeting to discuss the year's plans: Mrs. Paquette, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. LeBeouf, Mrs. Hatfield (Band, Jazz). Mr. Koziara (eyes only! Grade 8 Band), Mrs. Demarky-Anderson, Mr. Sheppard, Mr. Metcalf (Orchestra) and Mr. Feldheimer (Director, Choir, A Capella, Junior Class Play and Musical).

As we approach, it is obvious from the drawings and murals, we are near the Art rooms. Here we find Ms. Quinlivan, Ms. Welch — Director, Ms. Longworth and Mrs. Roddy. Actually, there are art works appearing on more and more walls, enlightening and brightening!

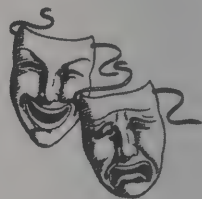

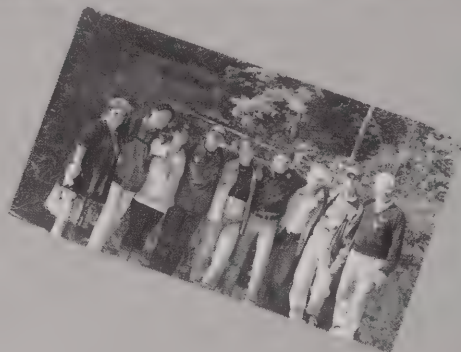

Our last stop is the Family & Consumer Science Department. We meet Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Tebbetts, Mrs. Stapleton — Director and Mrs. Monica — Nursery School Teacher. Courses offered include Adult Living, Child Development, Focus on Foods, Food Science and Nutrition, Sports Clothing and Fashion Technology. We often find Mrs. Crowley, Jobs for Bay State Graduates in this hallway, but not today. Look for her in the JBSG section and the new Job Opportunities initiative she and other SHS Staff and Community leaders are developing!

Kit Kelly, Rene Cardoza, Ade Ibukunle, and Kate Majewski wrap holiday gifts with Mrs. O'Leary's Sociology class. The gifts were donated to the Jobs for Bay State Graduates "Giving Tree" just before the holidays. The Sociology class visited the North Shore theater for a unique production of A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens. The trip was made with Miss Moreschi's senior English class, Mr. Hassett, and the Foreign Exchange Students.

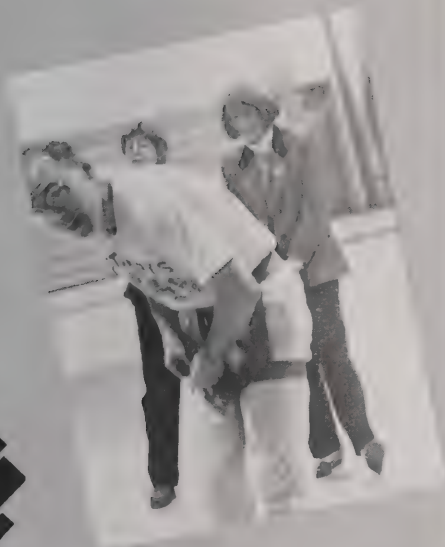

The gym was busy as Intramural volleyball returned to SHS this fall in full effect. Mr. Hassett and Miss Moreschi pose amicably with all of the Foreign Exchange Students on their trip to Old Sturbridge Village.

SHS Art students spent a day at New York City Museums. The budding artists posed for a group portrait. Elaine Erwin and Sarah Clermont were thrilled to visit the Museum of Modern Art. Miss Welch managed to keep smiling with Kerensa Knipe, Veronica Zielinski, and Phil Costa.

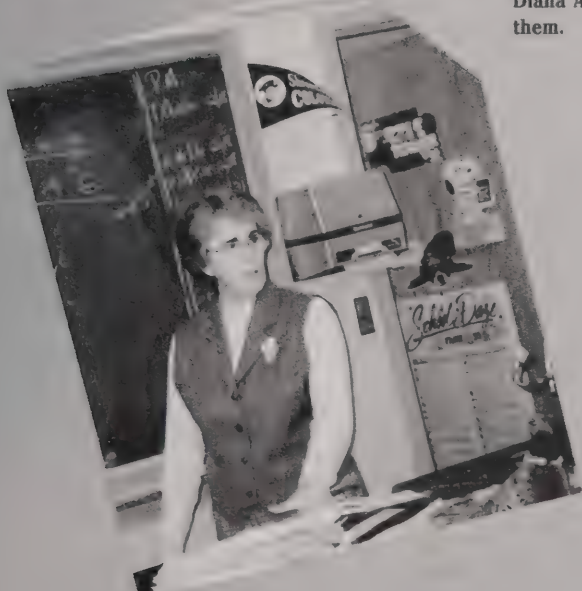

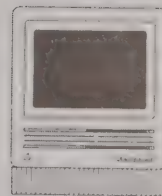

Mr. Danielson's English class moved into the Public Speaking unit. During a radio broadcast, time is ever so important. The luck of the draw decides who will go first and who gets an extra day to prepare.

Kevin O'Connor uses the technology in the SHS television studio to make SHS productions great. Mrs. Meyers looks on as Mr. Gutekanst gets ready to climb SHS's NEW "wall". And climb he did, right to the gym's rafters!

Mrs. Swenson's AP Biology class is the place to be for intense science. Diana Abril and Alon Rand pay attention to the challenge that awaits them.

The snow that came with 1996 brought cross country skiing to PE classes. Tim Merrill points the way for Jamil Samara. Patti McCoy and Angie Phillips keep in control.

All appeared fine, but then Jamil took the ultimate spill.

Sarah Schmidt works diligently on her artistic creation. Some of Sarah's other works have been displayed in the Wang Center's Art By Kids exhibit. Fifty artists' works from 1,100 portfolios were selected. Sarah's work is one of those fifty! Titled "The Week Ends, The Choices Begin", it captivates onlookers with a riveting sketch of a starving child among five others.

Psychology has not become the study of fruit! However, Dana Garvey, Amy Lesperance, Brian Krause, Tammy Calocci, Brian Thibodeau, Sara Saba and Ellen Bryan used oranges to further their understanding of the brain. The parts of REAL brains were diagrammed on the oranges with other edibles!

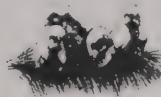

Art student Melissa Castellanos works on her clay pot modeled after one in a Matisse painting. Below: our favorite scratchboard seen displayed in the SHS halls.

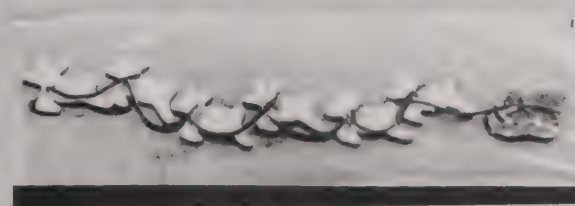

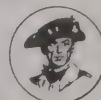

The Little Colonials are always busy in the SHS preschool. Sara Cain keeps her little friend busy with games. Melissa Ahlstrand and Melissa Abasciano read stories to keep the preschoolers entertained. Julie Osborne engages in friendly conversation and keeps her girls involved.

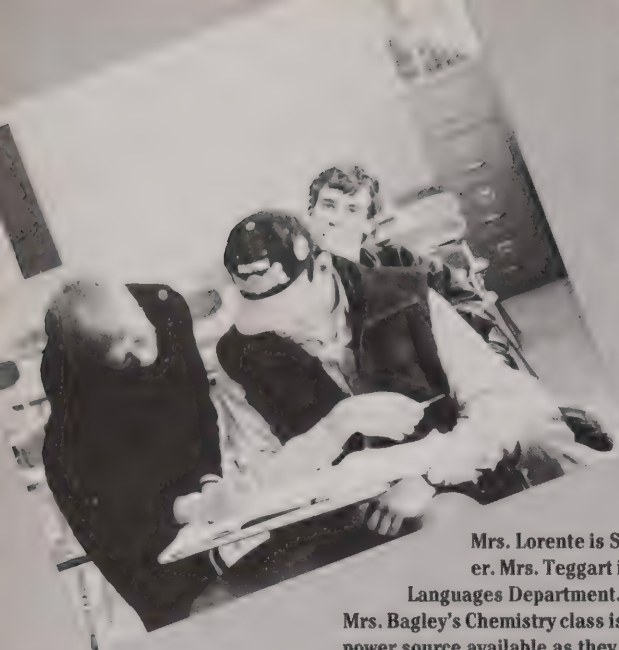

Health tests keep all the sophomores up to date. Mr. Warren uses a baby "dummy" to demonstrate Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation, CPR, techniques to his classes.

Congruent cookies were the holiday project that Mrs. Bartelson's geometry class chomped on! Maureen O'Connor and Amy Cuccaro taste test all the configurations Santa & Sleigh was one of the most involved projects!

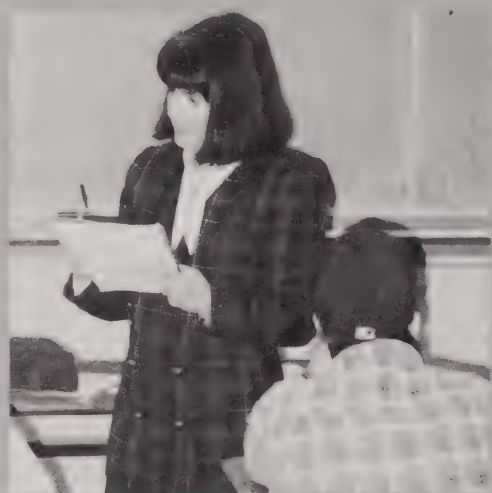

Miss Hubbard's classroom has been refurbished making French and English learning the more pleasant! Mrs. Stapleton's Family and Consumer Science class work on house layout plans. Mr. Ugialoro is standing in for Mrs. Hatfield and, so far, everything is working out musically!

Mrs. Lorente is SHS's new enthusiastic Spanish teacher. Mrs. Teggart is the new Director of the "new" World Languages Department. Mrs. Bagley's Chemistry class is trying to decide on the most efficient power source available as they look to meet energy needs.

Latin classes, taught by Mr. Sullivan, are always hard at work. Julius Caesar smiles among the trophies earned in Latin competitions. Mrs. Bartelson's science class learn-by-doing: composting. Sophomores learn the basics of American Civics with Mr. Brunell.

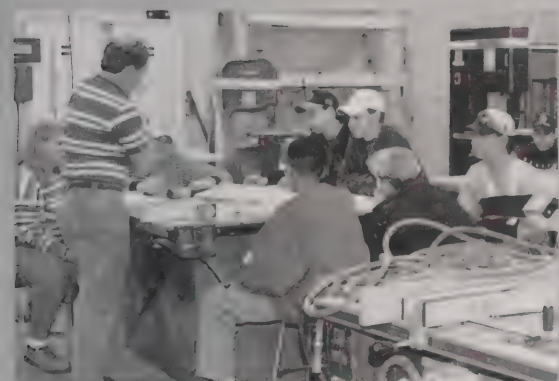

Erin and Bunmi stand with Erin's gingerbread house.

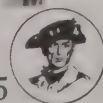

Miss Longworth guides students through the art of linoleum printing.
Mr. Gutekanst checks out students' construction of small wooden tables.

Mr. Perreault teaches the skill of window framing.
Mr. Brobeck's eighth grade Earth Science students get tangled up in atomic structure.
SPED students prepare towels for F & C Science classes. They are also seen working hard on classroom tasks.

Hieu Nguyen won this year's trophy for intramural archery. Miss Murray's juniors review for the American Studies mid-term.

Marching Band

Band Rally!

This year's Marching Band, led by Mrs. Hatfield, ruled over football games as usual. Drum Majorettes Sandra Fraga and Erin Howarth, and Officers Kelly McCarthy, Jamil Samara, Bridget Bergan, Lisa DiPilato and Talin Asadoorian kept the Band in line — almost! The 1995 half-time show consisted of: "Star Trek Finale and Voyager", "I Just Can't Wait To Be King", and "Can You Feel the Love Tonight?"

Concert Band

Horns . . . And Santa! WE saw him!

Under the baton of Mrs. Hatfield, the Holiday Concert Audience was treated by the Concert Band to a Spanish Matador's March, "Parada Espanola", Bizet's "Farandole", the "Ukranian Bell Carol" and Leroy Anderson's "A Christmas Festival". The Wind Ensemble from the Band played Holst's "March" and "Fantasia" from the Second Suite in F for Military Band.

Sara Sogigian and Tina Nguyen complete a successful season as Flages coached by Mrs. LeBoeuf.

Mrs. Hatfield will be on Leave. She has passed the baton to Mr. Ugliaoro for the time being. Other Band Organizers are: Assistant Managers: Beth Koziara, Jacqueline Houseman; Librarians: Mark Ethier, Brenda McDonald, Nathan Croteau, Paul Landry; Jazz: Kelly McCarthy; Section Reps: Patricia McCoy (Flutes), Rachael Cooper (Clarinets), Jenna Carter (DB Reeds/Low WW), Scott Penney (Saxophones), Mark Vaillancourt (Trumpets), Bryan Gould (Low Brass/Horns), Nathan Walsh (Percussion).

Thanks for "Marching" to our Support!

SHS Concert Choir . . .

As always, the Holiday Concert, much looked forward to, was spectacular. A "snow day" caused a two day postponement, but the Hall was still packed on December 21st! Alumnus Dave Ambach created the Holiday Mood with huge twinkling wreaths. The Concert Choir under the direction of Maestro Feldheimer presented Beethoven's "Hymn to Joy" and the very amusing "The Twelve Days After Christmas" with appropriate hand gestures, as part of their program. The concert concluded with the combined Choir and Orchestra sharing the spotlight with Alumni for the perennial Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's "Messiah". This is an event not to be missed!

vid Phyfe, Ichiro Shibasaki and Ryan Wilkes*, Basses are Edward Bedrosian, Sean Boland, Brian Brodeur*, Daniel Brownell*, Andrew Grillo, Daniel Holmes*, Matthew Holmes*, Josh Jones, Dennis King, Brian Krause*, Nathaniel Leonard, David Myslii, Jesse Racicot, Chetak Reshamwala, Walter Rice and Jamil Samara*.

A Capella

Twenty very fine singers were selected from the Concert Choir to prepare the A Capella program. To hear these voices unaccompanied by any instrument is a wonderful treat! This year, the A Capella Choir entertained with the Alfred Burt Carols, which includes the familiar "Caroling, Caroling", the Latin "Agnus Dei" and "Cantate Domino", the Chinese Carol, "Stars of Ice", "Do You Hear What I Hear" and Baker's "Christmas Hymn", which included an Echo Choir from the Auditorium entrance which supplied an entrancing effect (Bonnie Cuccaro, Alison Jolicoeur, Patrick Ludt and Dan Brownell). The A Capella Choir sings under the direction of Mr. Feldheimer.

SHS Orchestra

Bach's "Brandenburg"!

The Hallelujah Chorus is a given! But the Bach is quite an additional accomplishment! Soloists were Chris Wu, Talin Asadorian, Yuko Shimokawa and Natalie Schmidt.

The Holiday Concert Program also included Frescobaldi's "Toccata", Tchaikovsky's "Mother Ginger" and the always popular "Sleigh Ride" by Leroy Anderson.

Adam Popkin '96 and his "mello cello" recently received a National HS Orchestra Recommendation!

Tuning up before the Concert; The Orchestra On Stage; and, Surprise Trumpet Soloist: Mr. M!

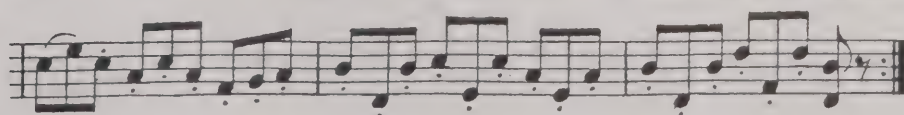

Conducted by Mr. Metcalf, the Orchestra Members are First Violins: Christopher Wu, Cynthia McDonald, Natalie Schmidt, Elizabeth Slavkovsky, Yuko Shimokawa, Trisha Anderson, Lauren Bacotti, Heather Balfour, Emily Barko, Holly Carlson, Lauren Corapi, Alan Emerson, Callum Gow, Jessica Lynch, Jill Nirenberg, Emily Wadsworth and Michelle Panagian; Second Violins: Matthew Grady, Sara Sogigian, Sonal Thaker, Geeta Kohli, Susanne Ganas, Alaina George, Laura Ciociolo, Shannon Hawley, Asavari

Kamerkar, Alana Leach, Robert Roddy, Charles Mak, Jennifer Saba, Cona Anwer, Sachin Bhavsar, Dana DelDotto, Ingrid Gustafson, Gregory Hwang, Shaw Lupton and Megan Mayo; Viola: Sharon White, Philipp Anwer, Jasmine Sahni, Matthew Ryzewski, Yvonne Di Benedetto and Alison White; Cello: Adam Popkin, Angelique Phillips, Patrick Ludt, Shaelea Angelo, Dana Fisher and Lucy Charles; Double Bass: Julie Cuccaro, Callie Avis and Jacqueline Phillips; Piano: Corey Bernhard.

Did you ever wonder how all those big instruments were carried about? SHS Cellists Angelique and Adam prepare for the Concert.

Colonial Jazz Band

"It's Hip to Be Square . . ."

This year's Jazz Band top ten are: 1. Que Pasa 2. Harlem Nocturne 3. Oye Como Va 4. Bagels and Cream Cheese 5. Moondance 6. Tequila 7. Slow Blues in F 8. Billy Jean 9. Jazz Nits 10. Birdland. Besides meeting third period, the Jazz Band added their talents to the Junior Class Play's Cafe Laté, lunches, and gave assemblies at the Middle School. The Jazz Band, was conducted by Mrs. Hatfield and Mr. "U": Saxophones: Kelly McCarthy, Ed Merchant, Dave Ronayne, Mark Danielson, Eric Martin, Scott Penney Brass: Eric Brown, Matt Cygielnik, Kate Beach, Anthony Pereira Percussion: Max Burwick, Dave Danielson, Alison Jolicoeur, Pete O'Neill, Brian Keating.

... And All That Jazz ...

Creating a Jazz ambiance in the Cafeteria: the Ensemble is a neat attraction during lunch with their renditions of "Theme from 'Frasier' " and "Oye Como Va"!

Eighth Grade Chorus

Amazing Grace!

Mr. Feldheimer directs more than forty voices in the Eighth Grade Chorus accompanied by Mrs. Gottlieb and sometimes student pianists. This year's Holiday Concert included "Huron Indian Carol", "Light the Menorah", "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Amazing Grace". The last verse of Amazing Grace sung by Tasha Hayden was accompanied by dancers: Adriana Falcon, Lynne Giguere, Brooke Myers, Erin Shanahan and Rebecca Shankle. Chorus members are: Sopranos: Danielle Anziano, Lindsay Beauregard, Adriana Falcon, Shanna Fraser, Lynne Giguere, Jeanine Harms, Tasha Hayden, Kelly Hoo-gasian, Jessica Koullisis, Angela LaPlante, Alexandria

Morris, Brooke Myers, Kelly Romanowicz, Michelle Sabourin, Kathryn Sanavage, Erin Shanahan, Rebecca Shankle, Jessica Sloatweg, Lindsay Theriault, Jennifer Zorge and Jessica Zorge; Altos: Kristen Baldinger, Kristin Charbonneau, Meghan Conway, Lauren Cove, Julie Creedon, Christine Dunn, Jacqueline Erickson, Elizabeth Favulli, Kerri Giannino, Krystal Goodney, Elizabeth Haffty, Vi Kim, Jyoti Maddula, Erin Maroney, Erica Negron, Jennifer Pacillo, Shannon Russell, Magdalena Tomecka, Catherine Trotto; Baritones: Nathan Colby and Daniel Racicot.

Political Action Group

"Education '95"

This year Political Action Group has had a busy year and still a number of events to go. Their first forum was an historic one. Massachusetts Senator John Kerry came to SHS. Most students were present and listened attentively to the senator. He spoke of the many serious issues concerning today's youth (including the OJ verdict) and was well received. A "hot" topic these days is "Ed Reform". (Below) Rep. Lane was one of the speakers on Educational Reform, a series being sponsored by PAG.

PAG received a grant from the SHS Alumni Association to further their efforts.

English as a Second Language.

This year's ESL students are: Tatiane Almeida (Brazil), Nhu Bui (Vietnam), Jason Guo (China), Sittichai Hardenchagain (Thailand), Tomomi Ishiko (Japan), Cristina Lage (Brazil), Lama Nazra (Jordan), Michael Nduati (Kenya), Raman Nunes (Brazil), Keyur Patel (India), Paula Ribeiro (Brazil), Murilo Ribeiro (Brazil), Diego Romero (Venezuela), Amit Sharma (India), Guarov Sharma (India), Vishal Sharma (India), and Ka-Nam Yeung (Hong Kong). Between them, they speak over ten different languages. Their teachers are Mrs. Figueras and Mrs. Calimeras. The things that most of these students seem to like the best about America are shopping, T.V., the helpful teachers at our school, magazines, and music. While it is a long hard process to learn how to speak and write English, all of the ESL students enjoy it thanks in part to the energetic teachers that they have to work with. Many of the students have expressed wishes to continue their education here in the United States before returning to their home countries. Paula Ribeiro summed up the feelings of the whole group when she said "I feel so good in the school because is good to talk with American people. I missed so much my country, but I like to live in here because it's like a new life."

Students constantly work to meet their deadlines during their free time and after school.

As ever . . . Deadline

Yearbook tries to capture memorable moments in classes, sports, music, dances and school events. This entails arranging for pictures to be taken and information to be recorded. All this has to be organized and fit onto a page or a layout: pictures cropped, pictures tabbed, watch out for white space, type the copy, check the grammar and spelling, how many picas does it take?, does it fit?, draw the layout on the computer or by hand, proof it all, submit. One down, 223 to go!

Herff Jones rep Mr. Carrier lets us know we have 51 pages left to go! Next and final deadline is January 25th.

Service With a Smile

This was the Shrewsbury High Service League's first year in existence. Formerly known as the Junior Red Cross, our service organization recently broke ties with the American Red Cross with the plan in mind to provide a broader variety of services to SHS and beyond. Officers Kelly McCarthy, Sarah Sogigian, Stacey Cignetti and Kerri Kularski, along with Advisor Ms. Murray were given the opportunity to blaze new trails in community service. The SHSL made their traditional trip to the Sisters of Notre Dame. They were a hit with their Halloween costumes and a big white monkey friend! SHSL has also been involved in raising money to purchase a "support" dog for Senior Nick Tannuzzo. The Spring "Bunny Junction" is in the planning stages and profits from that event are earmarked for Nick as well. In addition to the officers, the group picture includes some of the SHSL members: Jamie Northway, Alicia McDonald, Michelle Gleason, Robyn McCarthy, Dave Mojica.

Page editors are Kevin O'Connor and Mark Shooshan (News, Student Affairs), Nichole Charron (Feature), Allyson Miller (Sports), Lisa Zschuschen (Arts & Entertainment), Yash Shah (The Truth is Out There), Jill Rossi and Jeff Strom (Riddler, Editorials), Jeremy Vyska (Layout and Design). Staff writers are Rich Barbour, Joellen Giardiello, Jennifer Johnson, Tim Keenan, Kit Kelly, Arthur Levin. For second semester, new staff will include: Evan Thomas, Connelly Castle and Dave Roberts.

Excelsior brings together students' fine writing and artistic expression in magazine form in several issues per year. The weather has seriously affected production as it did photo ops. In the "Extra", for sure, we'll find the staff with works in progress. Key staff members who work with advisor Mr. Hodgen are Stephanie Keenan (Editor-in-Chief), Zach Berridge (Editor of Art Submissions), Erin Wilson and Nicole Simakauskas (Advertising), Kate Leonard and Jenn Rotolo (Critical Review), Dave Roberts (Layout), Lisa Berkowitz (Secretary).

Students involved in the Congressional Resolution Project have been working hard to encourage Congress to both support and develop new programs that provide for AIDS research, support and prevention. Over 1000 SHS students signed a petition that supports this resolution, and Congressman Neal of Springfield will read the resolution into the U.S. Congressional record. Officials of the Massachusetts government have issued the group an official citation recognizing their efforts. The group is looking to expand by linking with other disciplines at SHS and working with other schools. Future plans include participating in a Food Baskets for AIDS Sufferers Across the US program.

TOGETHER EVERYONE ACHIEVES MORE

T E A M! That might be what you saw on the back of the Varsity Girls team T-Shirt this past year. It is exactly what they did too. This past season under the guidance of Mr. Grenier, the team achieved many of its goals. With the help of the seniors Jan Ronayne, Julianne Kujala, and Captain Kate Majewski they successfully beat and tied Wachusett. They defeated Nashoba 3 -1, but then unfortunately fell to them in the District quarter-finals. Sophomore Jessica Lynch, stood tall in goal making it into the papers after playing only 4 games. Connelly Castle and Meaghan Young helped out on the forward line by keeping their titles as league leading scorers. Meri Roy, Julie Cuccaro, Callie Avis, and Shalea Angelo, held strong across the midfield, while Ellen Daly, Kate Majewski, Eileen Duhamel, and Laurie Romanowicz kept the ball out of the defensive area. Overall the year went well. Despite the loss of the three seniors, many will be returning to keep the team's skill at a high level.

THE CURSE OF THOSE BOYS' SOCCER COLONIAL CRAZIES

The Boys' Soccer Squad was very young this year, but this was no building year. The team continued the new tradition of district play as they qualified for the second year in a row. Lead by captains Ed Merchant, Scott Hawley, and Mike Cardoza, Shrewsbury started the season with two easy wins, and went on to defeat second ranked Marlboro. With a decisive victory over Shepherd Hill, the boys secured a place in districts. To their dismay, they lost their first round district game. Coach, Jim "Mt." McKinley, said that if it were not for the curse of those crazy fans, the team may have had a better season at home. He and the team have high hopes that next year will be their best year yet.

WE RUN FOR FUN GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

The Girls' Cross Country Team was lead by a strong pack of 11 runners. The Team started off the season winning the Milford two mile tune-up. They went on to win the Nashoba Invitational and place second in both the League and District Meets. After these victories, the Girls' Cross Country Team went on to finish ninth overall at the State Meet, while the Boys' Team placed thirteenth. On the individual level, Karla Jarquin placed 24th, and Mike Koziara placed 17th. The Girls' Team will miss seniors Karla Jarquin, Bridget Bergan, Lauren Corapi, and Merry Barrell. Next season the Cross-Country Team will be lead by Juniors Sara Saba and Kate Terrill, Sophomores Maggie Rivas and Emily Wadsworth, and Freshman Beth Koziara.

KEEP ON TRUCKIN'! - BOYS' X-COUNTRY

The Boys' Cross Country team had a very successful season. The boys finished with a five and one record and won the league meet, making them League Champions for the first time in five years. The Team was lead by senior co-captains Mike Koziara and Matt Flynn, both of whom had very strong seasons. Senior Mark Vaillancourt also pitched in a strong effort. Returning for the Colonials next year will be Curt Falzoi, Joe Duquette, and Paul DePalo. The three are juniors who were in the team's top seven along with sophomores, Adam Hurter and Kevin Andreson. The team finished with an outstanding record that included only 2 losses. One of those losses came to perennial powerhouse, St. John's. The boys almost knocked off the cross-town rival, when they lost by just a few points in their last dual meet of the season. They went on to finish third at districts and qualify for the state tournament. The Team shows great promise heading into next year.

STICK WITH THE BEST! - FIELD HOCKEY

The Field Hockey team may have been short on wins, but not short on spirit, teamwork, and enthusiasm. The team struggled mainly due to the loss of seven graduating team members. The girls had a few key wins, including knocking off the top seeded team in the league, Fitchburg. The 2-1 victory for the Colonials would be Fitchburg's lone loss of the season. Senior Tiffany Dexter led the team in scoring (11 points) and was a leader all season long. She led the offensive attack for the team and will be greatly missed. Dana Garvey, also a senior, contributed immensely to the control of the game. Her mastery of almost all the positions was highly appreciated when confidence was down. On defense, Kisha Josie stopped almost everything in her path. Her wonderful tackling skills made her a strong force in the backfield. Captain Ashley Nagle, unstoppable with her awesome dodges, kept center field under her control. A stone wall herself, she was always there to help the team.

Coach Krause kept her spirits up through it all and was extremely proud of her team. Next year's team, with the help of juniors Jenna Carter, Allyson Miller, Jaime Leifer, and Lisa DiPilato, hopes to make it to the "Big Dance!"

FIRST AND TEN!

This year's Colonial football team was very inexperienced. There were only a handful of seniors returning. The seniors who did play, had a lot of heart and played inspired football all season long. Seniors for the Colonials were Justin Coda, Steve McHugh, Rich Barbour, first year player Jason Cael, Co-Captain Matt Moore, Co-Captain Dan Current, and Co-Captain Anto Baronian. The team also received outstanding play from Sophomores Bill Demalia, Brian O'Connor, Tim Finacom, and Tom Simone. The lone victory of the season came against Algonquin. The team had added inspiration in the form Dave Maloney. Dave was a football player who was involved in a fatal accident over the summer. His number 22 was on the sidelines for every game.

Their record does not reflect the way the team played. The team played very well against one of the league's best, North Middlesex, on the road. The team also had tough losses at home, against St. Bernard's and league-rival Wachusett. The team is improving, and if the coaches can balance the young talent the team has, then next year could be a strong season.

SHREWSBURY RISING TO THE TOP! CHEERING

Fall Cheering began vigorous practices early in July. The team was invited to cheer at the annual NCAA Kickoff Classic game at the Meadowlands in New Jersey. At Giants Stadium late in August, the girls Varsity Cheering Squad rehearsed intensely for three straight days. The three days of hard work paid off as the team presented a solid routine in front of 75,000 BC and Ohio State fans.

Fresh off their strong performance in New Jersey, the girls elected to go to a fall tournament. With only a week and a half to prepare, Coach Lynda Shamlian and Captain Roseanne McGrail helped to create a three minute routine for the competition. The Cheerleaders won their first competition there with a score of 212 points. The Fall Cheering Squad practiced hard through the completion of their season. They not only practiced for upcoming tournaments, but also kept fans entertained during football games. With dazzling stunts and entertaining cheers, they kept the Shrewsbury faithful warm throughout the chilly football season. Their dedication and spirit leaves no doubt that the Shrewsbury Cheerleading team will rise to the top!

THE AUDIENCE IS WEARING CLOTHES...

Sports

Coach Mahoney once heard that imagining the audience in their underwear would ease his nerves. However, after a quick glance at his football team, he thought "The audience IS wearing clothes." December 3rd marked the end of the 1995 Fall season: Sports Night at SHS. As always, MVP's, new captains, and special awards were presented. The Most Valuable Players were: Cross Country - Mike Koziara & Karla Jarquin; Soccer - Scott Hawley & Ellen Daly; Field Hockey - Dana Garvey; Cheering - Maria Simone; and Football - Anto Baronian.

Central Mass Soccer All Stars for the Fall Season were Meg Young, Ellen Daly, Sara Sciammacco, Scott Hawley, Mike Cardoza, and Alberto Jarquin. Mid-Wach All Stars: Soccer - Scott Hawley, Mike Cardoza, Laurie Romanowicz, Julie Cuccaro, Ellen Daly, and Sara

Sciammacco; Field Hockey - Ashley Nagle, Tiffany Dexter, and Dana Garvey; Cross-Country - Mike Koziara, Curt Falzoi, Matt Flynn, Karla Jarquin, Maggie Rivas, Emily Wadsworth, and Beth Koziara; Football - Anto Baronian. The T&G All-Stars were Mike Koziara, Karla Jarquin, and Maggie Rivas, Cross-Country, and Justin Coda - Football.

The Lisa Lorden Award for Field Hockey - Kisha Josie; The Ed Steffen-Tom Kenary Award for Unsung Hero in Football - Matt Moore; The Wayne Lundstrom Award for Outstanding Line-man in Football - Dan Current; The Amy O'Leary Award for excellence in Cheerleading - RoseAnne McGrail. Eddy Merchant and Kate Majewski each took home a pair of awards by being chosen for the Golden Boot Awards in Soccer and the MIAA Sportsmanship Awards.

A Special thanks to Mr. Warren and the Fall Sports Athletes for sponsoring this page.

This years' fall sports teams had an overall successful season. The Boys' Cross Country Team won the League meet, while the Girls' Team were second in the League. The Boys' and Girls' Soccer teams made it to Districts. However, the Football Team and Field Hockey Team had a sub-500 season, hoping for more success next year. The Cheerleaders won at the Ashland Invitational Tournament. Congratulations to all and good luck for next year.

Our hearts are filled with pride
Our eyes are filled with tears
As we look back over the years
Seems like an instant ago you were so small
Now you've grown so very tall
Gentle and kind you've turned out to be

In our hearts it is plain to see
That while we wish we could keep you at home
Into a young man you have grown

So with our love, life is yours to try
We have given you your wings, it's your turn to fly

Dear Adam,

What a stack of achievements since the "First Trio" days! Keep letting your dreams be your guide . . .

Congrats and love,

Dear Kelly,

Dibs on all your stuff while you're at school. Oh, yeah, by the way, where is it I'm supposed to go at what time? I'll miss you a whole bunch.

Robyn

How will I ever use the computer without you? If you'll drive I'll treat for Chinese food.

Mom

Make sure you work your class schedule around the Raiders games. From bumper stickers to phone messages to letters, Ernie didn't have a chance.

Christopher,

Your life is just beginning and oh, what a beginning it has been. Our baby boy, our last born son, our "little" Christopher is graduating from high school. Congratulations! We are proud of you, Christo, and all that you have accomplished in these early years of your life. Your high school diploma indicates a willingness to complete, a desire to succeed and the ability to execute.

Christopher, you have brought much joy to our lives and we will continue to watch your progress with pride, love and undying support. You have so much more to experience in your life, and the world can be very accommodating to those who try. Try hard, Christo, try hard and enjoy. You have the heart of a lion and the inner strength to accomplish your goals.

Go get 'em, our son. Go get 'em with pride, with passion, with integrity, with a smile on your face, and with joy in your heart. You have character and compassion and that is the essence of life. We love you. We are proud of you. We will always be rooting for you.

Congratulations!

We love you,
Mom & Dad

SEP 1995 GRANTS AT SHS

The Shrewsbury Education Foundation generates funds for school and curriculum related projects not fundable through the school district budget.

The "Climbing Wall" project, submitted by PE Department Chair Robert Munzner, has created a completely new teaching station in a corner of the Gym, certainly an innovative use of space. This trust building exercise involves both Staff and Students. One person "on the ground" handles the belaying rope for the person climbing or rappelling.

A series of workshops for parents focusing on Conflict Resolution works toward the district goal of Respectful Community. Department Coordinator Patricia Degon (top, center, in one of the discussion groups) wrote this grant together with the Shrewsbury PTOs. The grant funded speaker Carol Gerzon from Educators for Social Responsibility.

Concluding speaker in the Political Action Group's series on Bosnian Awareness: John Kerry, US Senator from Massachusetts. The PAG Grant was submitted by Roberta

Memories and Bequests

Making a reappearance in the Colonial is the much in demand Senior "Will": bequests to Underclassmen, Faculty, Family and Friends based on memories and shared experiences at Shrewsbury High School and beyond. The bequests range from the very funny to those that are heart warming and very touching: a generous way for the Seniors to close this 37th edition of the SHS Colonial.

In addition to lots of Prom-goers, we include Mr. Houle's 4th Grade at Spring Street School: (top) Marty Lucey, Dion Welch, Michelle Babin, Stephanie Clermont; (center) Kim Plante, Cyndi Mc Donald, Matt Grady, Courtney Mayo, Sonali Maheshwary, Adam Popkin, Rich Nicholson, Meredith Barrell, Tracy Law; (front) Matt Taft, Beth Warren, Ashley Nagle, Patrick Ludt.

We, the class of 1996...

I, Diana Abril, leave Dave R., a bottle of my snapple. Doza, $15 for breakfast. Phill C., one more year to climb the wall in gym class. To my soccer boys, no more cookies. The girls' basketball team, the best of luck. And, last but not least, Pedone to NOBODY.

I, Juan Abril, leave for Colombia to get peaced. If I had something to leave, I would give it to you know who.

I, Christopher Agbay, leave Carlin, Neil, Phil, Schuh, Mark, Billy Boob, Marty, and all of the rest of the fisherman to take care of my Res., and Mrs. O'Leary, the world.

I, Rebecca Ahlfors, leave Blueberry Morning, a shnirp, butterscotch, and an unstimpy to Jessica, Brittany, Dave, and Den. To Monica, I leave the clutched Jubilee roll, and the man with the DEEP voice. To Roy, I give a cannoli. And I leave all of my love to the rest of the freaks.

I, Melissa Aikens, leave my brother another 2 years of high school, Jaime - the Best Cookie among other things, Becky a slinky, and Steph to survive the football games without me and Kathy.

I, Nicole Anderson, leave B.J. and Kelly with Pine Acres and our soap opera summers. Adam with 4 good years of High School at Assabet. I leave Courtney all of the Reese's Peanut Butter Cups she can eat. I leave Mel to fight off the vampires.

I, Aaron Augustino, leave Mark Ethier the Christmas Tree.

I, Michele Babigian, leave all of my pookies one more year of high school, all of the cheerleaders to "GET DOWN ON IT," Mike Hogan my college phone number and Tommy Simone the famous name "STUD!"

I, Lauren Bacotti, leave Ed to lick batteries by himself, Sarah to go to the bathroom alone before Tennis, Alexis to suffer through college English classes, Scott to become a PGA golf star, Student Council to accomplish future endeavors, Conor my physics labs, Mrs. Meyers to organize the chaos of this building, Jonathan my memory and my love, and Matt my heart.

I, Melissa Baima, leave the gymnastics team my floor music and "Little Boxes." To Kisha I leave my lip gloss. To Fro - all the guys I never liked. And to all my dearest friends. I leave dreams, hopes, and the future! And to Mrs. M, Thank You!

I, Heather Balfour, leave PAG, NFL, orchestra, the musicals, and the beautiful high school to Donnarae, and my sister Kim.

I, Richie Barbour, leave Jay Rudman, Bill Demalia and Timmy Finacom the best of luck in '96. I also leave my brother Ronnie or who ever thinks they can fill it, the "center" position. Thanks Mom & Dad, Billy. P.S. Blue & Gold forever. I also leave James O'Leary my shot putting goals!

I, Anto Baronian, leave my jersey to Coach Mahoney, my shotput to Jay Rudman, my discus to Mike Hogan, my enthusiasm, for track to Brian O'Connor, our broken lab equipment to Mrs. Bonneau, and anything that's left to D.

I, Alexis Barry, leave Nikki DiLeo a box of Jello, a pair of scissors, and a map of Westboro; Bonnie straw shoes; Z a picture of Jack Nicholson; Julianne Baril 6 AM hockey games; Carolyn my EMF tape; and Diana the perfect gorilla animal cracker.

I, Kate Beach, leave my orange t-shirt to my brother if the class of 2001 comes to SHS next year, Science club theology debates to Yal and Tamara, solo jazz trombone to Dave, Mrs. Goldman the instructional booklet "Memories of a PAG Treasurer," and Mr. Hodgen, Nicole to deal with.

I, Bridget Bergan, leave Carolyn my deep voice, Emily and Geeta without rides home, Kim and Vicki 5 hours to get ready after swimming, Lauren hair extensions, the cross country team a food fight with Wachusett, Dennis, 57 of everything, the two tone blue to its lucky new owner, and my brother 11 more years of school.

I, Brian Brodeur, leave my facial hair to Fred, my dress to the sistaz, my orangutan to Lauren, peace to Murf, New Kids on the Block to Al and Maribeth, the watchtower to Eric Martin, subway to Matty and Phil, and the seasons and water to Jill.

I, Eric Brown, leave 1st Trumpet to Tim LaBua and my bagging position at Edwards to Brenda.

I, Ellen Bryan, leave to Liz, a ride anywhere; to Karin, my hair; to Ang, a nice shirt; to Maria, map; to Michelle, a double spread eagle; to Sue, Rose, and Farah, choo-choo train underwear; to the cheerleaders, good luck; to Katie, hot water; to my lunch table, Mindy; and pudding to Em.

I, Tammie Calocci, leave Little Myers many good times to be had, Michele to find her schruncie in Fran's room, and tell us when mom's home. Tammy to rage whenever she wants, and Danette I leave Brett calls 4! And finally I leave Myers to spin me around on Sundays, but only if I have a helmet on.

I, Renee Cardoza, leave my brother the "DOZA" name at Shrewsbury High. I also will leave my blessings to all future graduates of this exciting school.

I, Meghann Catlin, leave everyone to figure out the SHIFT schedule, Kit with all the comments on how cold Mr. M's room is, Lauren walking alone in the morning, Guidance without another Catlin, Lola in the driveway, my bedroom to Carabelle, Lauren S. the ability to not turn red! and Maria the selection.

I, Leo Champagne, leave the broken sled to Mark, a damaged snow bank to Koz, and Cannibal Corpse to Justin Collard.

I, Tina Chadna, guess it's OK if Jesse lives in my room, but I'm taking my door with me.

I, Justin Coda, leave this school knowing that I've made it a better day for everyone that I met.

I, Jason Collard, leave.

I, Elizabeth Cook, leave the bus ride to and from school everyday, and two years to experience those experiences to Er; five fun-filled years of high school to Flip, a year left in prison for my Scotty, and what I have left of my innocence to Devin.

I, Lauren Corapi, leave Kate, Julianne, and Nikki the Kujalberapski cheer; Karla and Kate T. a chocolate cake; Jill a pack of gum; Gheeta and Emily G-harmonic and pick-up lines; Bridget hair extensions, Maggie and Karla a bible; Kisha a miniature golf game; Saba a recycling bin; and Kate a date to the wall.

I, Bonnie Cuccaro, leave Julie lots of caffeine for her "all-nighters", Amy, the SHS stage, and a classy lighter for Marv and Ed.

I, Sherry Daviau, leave Melissa talking to the energy, Leslie, secrets locked up forever, Amy true friendship and no squirrels, Jeff standing up alone, Daryl lots of good times, Mr. Chace crisis-free and all my friends, family and Mark all the love and good memories that carried me through.

I, Monica DeStefano, leave Meg Monopoly, telephone calls to Molly and Katie's answering machines; to Yosh, exploring, Pookie, Billy Joel Songs, the Pentagon, Shaft, to Chris, tons more proms, Eleni's until 4 am, and corn, to Naomi, Max, Mitch, Dan and Joe, cap guns, girlie stuff, gremlins, and clinches.

I, Tiffany Dexter, leave Maria Simone Chocolate chunk yogurt gallons, beach talks, man hunts, and every good time. Erica Gestone inherits my closets, shoes, also my JF advice. Miss you Creek. Michael "my nurse" Cardoza, I leave my sick nights, wrestling, soccer, basketball moves, Cape weekends, OUR horse nightmare, every moment together, my heart, my love.

I, Nicole DiLeo, leave Amy bowling shoes and the cop catcher: Julianne - a red hat and a bathing suit top. Alexis - a bag of rice cakes and good directions to Westboro. Scott - his hooded soccer sweatshirt. The bow four - my Lion King shoelaces. Talin - a hubcap. To all my friends - the keys to Mohammed and a big hug.

I, Michal Dobosz, First, Last year off to Europe. I'll be in space yet.

I, Michael Dowling, leave Amy Beth a smile, Stanley long hair, Dion his pinky nail, Freddy a bed, Marv courage, Neil bravery against females, Meredith 90210, Bonnie's Hermie, Diana St. John's Dances.

I, David Faucher, leave this place behind... Smelfa to drive thru, Mrs. Bagley another student just like me. Danielle a new ride... Sweet Betsy & Sama... Ag's Green Jello... Stoico a new back scratcher and to everyone a great big hug. To Mom and Dad, someone else to do the chores. And Ag's, one more italian ice.

I, Matthew Flynn, leave Curt & Joe for another year. Good Luck. I leave my Brother two more years, make the good. I leave Lauren my love.

I, Magdalena Gargova, leave my books and locker to Lama Assaf, my pictures and anything else to Nicole S. I leave my term papers to any English teacher who will take them.

I, Derek George, leave my pencil to Ricky.

I, Jeremy George, leave because I earned it.

I, Joellen Giardiello, leave, Kristen Sundt, a new hair brush, Julie Harmon, spaghetti and meatballs from Denny's, Nicole Gesuse, the Mobil dance, Jenny Thibodeau, our endless memories and that nickname, Danielle Mauro, on the bench alone without a big sister, and Julianne Giardiello and James O'Leary two more years at SHS.

I, Danette Gleason, leave Clure my empty bottles and cans of SPRITE, Dumb - many more practice runs, Calocci-4 calls BRETT, Myers - Sunday driving in my car, Little Myers - that name 4-EVA, Beavis and Barlz to rule Hailhouse Rock, and Mom, Leeb's, Keely and John- all of my love to last them 4-EVA.

I, Matthew Grady, leave Julie one more year at SHS to find the ideal "deep" guy, the swim team the "resource" legacy and a tuna fish sandwich in my locker.

I, Jaime Green, leave Jill, the pouch which explains Junior year, Cheryl, the cozy little room next to mine at the local mental institution, Ashley, a new doorbell that is so loud the house shakes, and Katie, all of the fun she can handle when she has to babysit all by herself at every family get-together.

I, Jessica Guimond, hereby leave: Meg- a cheese stick and one-million hand motions, Sarah- this guy at Nine Inch Nails, Dave- sleeping lip twitches and part of my soul, Sara Mars- coffee, cigarettes and friendship, Dennis- the Coca Cola that didn't spill, Roy- some corn, love to the freaks, and an apology to anyone unmentioned.

I, Amy Gulino, leave Merissa, everything I learned in human Phys., Kuj a random bikini top at Newport beach and a huge steak with a side salad with lemon dressing. Nikki, a skier in Waterville, duck underwear, and bowling lessons. Jan, money for dinner, and hot Moca-Razcoffee with Milk. Keating a broken mirror in a random unknown playhouse in Salem. Mr. Hodgen- a V8. Mandi, memories, pictures and S.O.S. secrets. Carolyn D., UHHAHH. And all of my friends, a half a piece of gum.

I, Marcus Hadavi, leave our good times in High School to the waitresses at Friendly's, Breakfast at Charlies to Steve, my golf skills to Mehne, and my Iron Horse to Edgar.

I, Merissa Haddad, leave Julie and Kristin the balance beam in front of the weight room; Talin a box of altoids; Mandy F. the ketchup bottle from Jekyll and Hyde; Amy a blonde wig; Keating a date with a college girl; Lauren a ticketron location; Alexis a poster of a witch; Jan minto shminto; and Sharon a roll of toilet paper.

I, Kari Harbert, Ryan 365 Chipburrrrgers, to Katje another barrel; to Steph a safe linoleum cutter, to Becky a slinky, to Tracy her license, to Sarah an aura, to Bester - Ivanhoe, to Mel the AAA lady, to Les and Sam - anything, to anyone the legacy of the moles, and to Mrs. Bagley - her moles... well maybe..

I, Scott Hawley, leave with more knowledge of 80's music than the lead singer of Wham, and the Colt to anybody who can handle it.

I, Matthew Hochstein, leave my Woody Pen to Mr. Hodgen's Creative Writing Class, Derek Skipwith with more shots, and Ms. Welch some peace and quiet.

I, Ade Ibikunle, leave my attendance records and my basketball skills to Anthony Tivnan and Eric Riley.

I, Nicole Jalbert, leave Jenna another successful year of track. That Carolyn will have endless hours at Easy Pieces, and Phil - a disco partner. Hogan, stay alive with the soul train. Ethier... just hang in there. To Marcus, Kate, Anto, Jared, Eddy, Scotty, Jimmy, Bridget, Coda, Lauren, Matt, Tim, and Ashley, all of our memories and good times; I'll miss them.

I, Karla Jarquin, Alberto 2 and Erin 3 more years to dunk and score 30+ goals, Maggie and Hector the fun nights at Foss, Claudia my strength to run, Doza and Hogan the lunch table, Erica and Avis another year of science, Pinn my E's, Sarah and Kate the X-Country team, and Emily all my points.

I, Alison Jolicoeur, leave a little love, light, energy, and song for everybody.

I, Kisha Josie, leave Merri to make a decision, Lemon Lime Slushes, Sara, Jaime, Kristen to find Jimmy T.I. and Jay to find someone new to make fun of. Lizzy more cheese. Jess-Scooping. Al and Dan the Crazy Camel. Lubu, Mark, Chet, Jeff, Kevin, Mark - white hanger things. Dana slushes at Dean Park. I leave my shirt to no one.

I, Brian Keating, leave Foster one more year, Massy-a large cheese pizza, Andy a box of chicken, Jen-the first issue of Potatoe Fish, Pete-a cool base line, and I leave Mr. Hodgen the magazines down at the park!

I, Kitrick Kelly, leave Mrs. Schroeder's future classes mass disruption. To Devin I leave my many outstanding cut slips, and to Nichole I leave my poison ivy. To next year's team I leave a better work ethic, and a better season. Sorry guys. And to my brother all my whitey tighties.

I, Dennis King, leave Meg a dead body with 80 people in one car and a single of "Come and Get Your Cheese," Dave a "Comparison," deep conversations, the chicken box and the Celestine Prophecy, Tara "M-Z" and Gem, and my love to all the FREAKS!

I, Michael Koziara, leave a kick in the eye to all the Guido's, and I leave Curt Falzoi to take care of Mary Jane.

I, Julianne Kujala, leave Carolyn the 5-Finger discount; Avis a certain Er; Joe the foundation; and my little brother three more years.

I, Kathy Law, leave Phil Anwer something to make him look stunning at the prom. I leave Steph Keenan cold friday nights during football season. Lastly, I leave Katie Leonard the KaMeL name. Good luck guys!

I, Kelly Lepore, leave to glowworm & fruitcake, the triumphs of my ill mind, may every one still enjoy my "innocence." Laura, I can't give you Tweety but remember me that way. To everyone else, I leave the school.

I, Paul Lindberg, leave bandit, Lisa, Mom, John, Mr. C, Studio, CC, Julie, Matt, bye.

I, Martin Lucey, leave my hockey number, #3, and crew seat, to whoever wants them; Sweet's car a paint job; Mrs. O'Leary something; my brother & sister more time in this wonderful institution of higher learning. HA! I leave Nicole one more year and "a boot to the head."

I, Patrick Ludt, leave the tenor section to Mark, Jackie - stuff, Jamil - my baby picture. I leave Matt & Dan my baseball wallet. I leave Dan Brownell the good stuff, and I leave Brian Krause my loud voice.

I, Kate Majewski, leave Ryan SHS and an early curfew; Mom & Dad an empty room; and Shrewsbury a void that the Class of '96 will no longer fill.

I, Bethany Mawdsley, leave my brothers to continue their years at SHS (have fun), my mom a house with peace and quiet, Bri - you can have my fleece, Danielle memories of our friendship (what happened?), Jay - I leave you the memory of all the great things we have done together. Thanks everyone - Bye SHS!!

I, Courtney Mayo, leave my sister Megan four of the best years of your life at Notre Dame, St. John's Flavian 410, the bad llama and a CYC - take care of it and yourself; Nikki a new pair of rollerblades, Snapple and Chicklets; Bethany the dates on my planner to write on; Mr. McGinn wedding invitations and Alana the St. John's gym.

I, Kelly McCarthy, leave Robyn the ongoing struggle to get up in the morning, Nate a year of Evita's, Mrs. Peterson a case of chalk, Jaime broccoli, Scott my first alto folder, Mark deadlines, Matt to find his own way home, Ryan and Keith to survive science, Mr. Hodgen room for one more poster.

I, Colleen McConnell, leave Erin to put up with SHS for two more years, Nikki to the farm animals, Tabitha to deal with the hockey players, the gang to Saturday nights out, Angela a coca-cola bottle, Sonja all my poems of life, Tom and Colin to football game memories.

I, Patricia McCoy, leave Carly a blue station wagon with Pat and Matt, Amanda a fluffy bunny and a discount at the Gap, Meghan a one-way ticket to Capri with snoop DoggyDogg (gotta get a jobby job), and Elaine a black cardigan, the mysterious darkness that she cannot see, and trips to the mall alone.

I, Cyndi McDonald, leave the "silver bullet" to Brenda, Kate's jumper cables to Kerl, the neighborhood to Bobby, the neverending quest for a part to Jaime Leifer, and a big, sloppy, wet kiss to Chris Casey.

I, Rose-Anne McGrail, leave nothing to anybody at SHS. I leave my mom with a smaller phone bill and my dog to keep her company. I leave my boyfriend with a wonderful year behind us and many more ahead. I love you both.

I, Michele McNeil, leave Kerry all the jewelry in the world. Angela a map of Ware. My #1 neighbor a new place to hangout. Most importantly I leave Steven my HEART!

I, Edward Merchant, leave Pedone my number, 11, Sanavage a starting job, Hogan to carry on the Notre Dame spirt, Dave to lead the tenors, and to my brother, Brian Merchant, I leave my smile and to carry on the Merchant name, throughout the Halls of Shrewsbury High School.

I, Tim Merrill, leave my number to Bennett, the soccer team much respect, Johnson to Gina, both of them my car, many snow days to SHS, and many trips to Killington!

I, Jared Millman, leave my Snoop Dog CD's to the eighth graders. To the physics class I leave my pre - corrected labs, and to everyone else I leave homeroom and accreditation because they won't get it from school.

I, Bree Myers, leave Chicky her Friday nights alone with Shane. Tammy to find her own designated. Nette to fit into her own Brett jeans forever. Calocci never to leave home without her helmet. Little Myers my clothes, and many more years of school. Mom, Dad, and Rickey I leave you my thanks and love forever.

I, Ashley Nagle, leave my field hockey team: Districts, Cheryl a mailbox, Jaime a chicken flashback, Jill a pizza from Papa Gino's, Steph a car, Scott and Jikki the Breakfast Club, my friends my house, Miller and Lisa my yelling skills, Jenna my brutality, Jess no boy problems, Karla my dodges, Elisa and Aimee art class, Zona's study next year.

I, Tina Nguyen, leave the tennis team the "shorter" mile loop; my brother another at this beautiful establishment; Mike, Jen, and Kate more deadlines and grease pencils; Mark E. enough stomach punches to last a lifetime; Rose-Anne my cheerleading tape 'cause I have no choice; Steph Strom & Jill Gaudette the memories of our nearly fatal ride from Natick X-mas shopping; and my parents and closest friends many thanks and much love.

I, Jill Nirenberg, leave Cheryl not to write the same thing in her will; Probeman still playin' with the "girls"; Jaime, "You say, you want..."; Ashley, a world free of scary men; and Dave and Jeffrey to be as "nice" as I was.

I, Nicola Notley, leave Steve all his work, done, Mrs. DeFalco all of the Pre-school Records untyped, my mother the fact that I made it, Jackie the right to party every weekend, in the woods, and Mike all the help he can get from the teachers.

I, Kevin O'Connor, leave Brian 2 years to win a super bowl, Jay Rudman meditating by the shotput circle, and the Edit 4 Apartment to Dave.

I, Matthew O'Donnell, Leave Ryan G. still a geek, Amanda M., a bigger flirt, Murf his shoes, Morgan's house after school, SF a kiss, Costa - Wilson, Nellie, Kane, Susie Greenberg, and Corral Klegg., Neilly, a box of Frosted Mini wheats and Melissa A., my unwanted sweatshirts. Everybody else hugs and nugs. Hehe...

I, Brittany Pehl, leave Amanda "Hug-N-Kiss" and Alicia a friendly security guard, Sandra a ground that is not so soft, Josh my sisterly love, Phil an extended curfew and an Ani DiFranco ticket, and Sara a pair of scizzors to cut those apron strings.

I, Amy Peterson, leave my mom her office back, time for her to do her own work! I leave the other classes all the new changes, thank God I'm out of here! I hope everyone makes their dreams come true and do what they plan. Goodbye my friends of the class of '96. P.S. I leave Mrs. O'Leary - Time Magazine.

I, Angelique Phillips, leave my sister a curse of bad fortune. I hope your head falls off and rolls away. To Jess, I leave all our crazy memories since the beginning of time and the promise of more to come. Bye to Meg, Marisa, and Shalea.

I, Michele Pikiel, leave all my thanks and understanding to my mother; my brother - his clothes back; Tammy all the late nights; Bree the keys to the car; Danette all the evidence; Tammie my scrunchy; Little Myers four more years at Shrewsbury High.

I, Kimberly Plante, leave my two buds, Melissa and Jessy, a light, George- many Halloween nights to come, Ang- a pop-up liberty, Nikki- many butts at Mobil, Meg- my awesome base running ability, and my little brother Joey, I leave morning bus rides to school and the best four years of your life!

I, Leslie Polizoti, leave Geoff Polizoti to all SHS teachers (good luck, guys); I leave Mrs. Bagley her moles; Hodgen a cup of light hazel nut coffee; Cher - the ultimate fantasy; Sarah a cherry; and Sir-Richard a stone.

I, Adam Popkin, leave Lubu my part of the cheering section, Shalea or Dana the remainder of the once great cello section, Chet and Lubu the you-know-who's on the tennis team, Mehbnø thousands of tiny shards of broken equipment on your floor, Ethier to master MIDI, and my schizophrenic dog to anyone who wants him.

I, Kristen Putelis, leave: Shmjoe: the BUS; Karen: Spare keys, Downtown; Coll: dazed and Confused; Tammy: one less fight; Mish, Booz, Hoov, Shell, Haddad, Geek: Old Orchard; Mr. M: more chocolate chip cookies - no nuts; Lauren, Scott: Ground Round, Mini-Golf, My Apron; Mr. MacMillan: one less complaint; Mrs. Stevens - a thank you; Ed: all my love!!

I, Joe Racicot, leave my younger brothers with more Saturdays for being tardy, the Blue Törpedoes of Love, lots of stimulating math classes, and many more miles to run for this school and the Lord.

I, Lynn Ricciardi, leave Nicki all alone to find the guys and MG a new girlfriend. Luv you guys!

I, Trisha Rojcewicz, leave buckets of red paint, Rod, and a bunch of Starbursts to Sarah.

I, Jan Ronayne, leave the Gymnastics team extra time to fool around, Kerensa: outrageous invitations.

I, Michele Roy, leave Tara an upside down salad, Yosh on the joke, Jill naked, Sarah a miracle, Dave a swift kick in the butt, Meg a music stand, Mitch Ketchup, Paul his sweatshirt, Jen my jeans, and Jessie little silver earrings.

I, Jamil Samara, leave Mark - the office, Mrs. O - another year of headaches; The Basses - pushups; Tommy - all the track records to break; Dave, Eric, & Nick - the tenor tradition; Nick Moore - the hairiest man ever; and Paul DePalo to keep hope alive.

I, Sameer Sawe, leaves Chet and Lubu to continue the Indian Takeover in Tennis as well as NFL. I also leave Lubu, Ron, Larry, and Alex - Taco Bell. I leave Julie our TV drawer (that doesn't exist anymore) and the SHS "deep" guys. I also leave Juli L. our "Forrest Gump" duo.

I, Yash Shah, don't have much so here goes nothin'. Lubu, you can have my bench space in Tennis. Swanky, for you I leave PAG. My "mama" jokes are for Ethier. He can have Yearbook also. I leave my "loud opinion" to whoever wants it, they're big shoes you know. Lastly, I leave my great voice, perfect "bod", and my women to the needy ones for I know how it feels.

I, Mark A. Shooshan, leave one undisturbed night's sleep to Newman, 2CB to all the little Coda's, the Mackadoushious era to Mehne, Yash a new pair of skates, Sweet a weekend ungrounded and finally Hummus to all.

I, Maria Simone, leave Tiff yogurt, Missy a new roommate, Tom a copy of "Kiss from a Rose", John some "Hoop Dreams", Karin and Ang all of my love, Erin a Regatta, Sue money for the picture, Liz and Keegan my secrets, Faucher shoes and glasses - THANK YOU, Ellen Mr. Football Man and Charity Church Mouse!

I, Sarah Sogigian, leave Carol to have as many wonderful teachers as I did; Jaime, nips, GF cocoa, snowball fights, and poisoned noodles; Cyle, to not ever get stuck in a tree while playing tag; and Meghan Birch.

I, Jeffrey Strom, leave Lubu Advanced Topics in Chemistry and Physics, Another year of Pinsky, and my mad tennis skills. I leave Alan and Jeff the Swim Team tradition. I leave Steph two more years of Mom's new recipes.

I, Ben Sweet, leave my two hubcaps to whoever wants 'em, Mrs. Schroeder to my little bro, Mt. Piska to the Junior Class, Bridge Jumping to Pein, I leave Agbay a second senior year, way too much Kool Aid and my old shoes to Fauch, I leave my Radiohead tape and Brooks to Bean, the Nits to roam the halls of SHS without me, Ms. Yurkinas a big long hmmmmmmmmmm..., and oh well, I leave health to Mrs. O'Leary, I guess.

I, Joe "Timmy" Tamburro, leave Foster to be the last true man of SHS. Govoni to Katie May, Angi Bisceglia all to John Moore. And finally Ron Piccaro left at rest.

I, Fran Tran, leave my hat to Mr. Largess to cover his big bald head, my delightful charm to Miss Tosi, The Source to Mike Hogan, music knowledge to D.C., and my business to whoever wants it.

I, Kyle Vadebonceour, leave Karla 2 more years of peace and quiet, Ryan - the phone number to the homework hotline, Burry High my mark.

I, Mark Vaillancourt, leave the Nits to take over the school and all my love to Mary Jane

I, Theresa Venuti, leave to my sister Jessica all the halls and bad teachers of Shrewsbury High and the many memories we shared whether it be at home, school, or work. To Alicia McDonald, I leave the memories of summer of '95. Don't forget our plans after you graduate. To my old homeroom of 305, good luck.

I, Christopher Wu, leave Lubu to deal with Croteau, the Orchestra to Jess Lynch, Topper to Julie M., and a bologna sandwich to whoever gets my locker next year.

I, Cheryl Zalieckas, leave Jill Nirenberg her own brain (because I'm sick of sharing mine), Merissa a string that won't break, Yash a bag of blow pops and "the" music stand, the girls' basketball team the desire and determination to have a winning season, and the world to figure out what MTBE means.

SHS Colonial 1996 Colophon

Küçük Yarınlara Sayesinde...

Volume XXXVII of the SHS Yearbook focuses on "help": in order to succeed. No where is that more obvious than completing the annual Yearbook! This activity is voluntary. Work can be completed any time, any place — as long as you meet THE DEADLINE! Help with layout, pictures, copy, proof reading is essential. The idea for the theme was developed by Jamil Samara '96 from the Joe Cocker tune, redone by the Beatles.

The 1996 Colonial Yearbook is 224 pages in length; its cover is Vista Lithograph, four color process. It was designed by Dave Roberts '97, Mark Ethier '97 and Jamil Samara '96. The background was spray painted, the logo designed by Dave in "Adobe Photoshop", and then printed on photographic paper by Corporate Graphics of Westboro.

The End sheets were designed by Jamil and Mark and include the Class of '96 picture organized by Kate Majewski '96.

800 issues have been subscribed to and will include a projected 32-page Spring "Extra". Paper was upgraded to Calais, 100 lb. stock with Allegiance, 110 lb. for the color section. The Yearbook was published by Herff Jones with the support of our faithful "rep" John Carrier. Subscription is $25 largely made possible by the nearly $9,000 in Family, Friends & Community "ads". In addition, there were a few page sponsorships (made quite difficult because there were no Homerooms or Activity Periods for 1995-96), and the Yearbook's unique lollipop sales.

This is what happens as Deadlines approach! JUST KIDDING!

Yearbook Staff:

Advisor: Mrs. O'Leary

Advisor: Ms. Damico

Work completed on disk using Aldus Pagemaker included the Upperclassmen, Seniors, Fall Sports sections.

Font was Cheltenham.

Headline used fonts from "Americana" through "Windsor".

Senior Portraits were for the most part by Grampietro and Hilton Studios and Mrs. O'Leary. Yearbook Photographer is Mrs. O'Leary.

Quite unique is Colonial '96 is the inclusion of our theme in a number of different languages, spoken by SHS Students and Staff:

Arabic (169) Mr. Samara; German (107) Mr. Secino; French (89) World Languages Department; Latin (17) Mr. Sullivan; Italian (43) Mrs. Teggart; Spanish (137) Mrs. Black; Japanese (209) I. Shibasaki; Hindi (121) Y. Shah; Polish (217) P. Prusek; Turkish (224) E. Gur

Languages found on the ESL page (125) include: Portuguese, Vietnamese, Mandarin, Thai, Japanese, Arabic, Swahili, Gujarati, Hindi and Cantonese.

A FINAL word: Be on the lookout for the '96 Colonial Extra!
